A Life Saved

Sixteen Months of Awful Suffering Impure blood is a serious danger.
Just as soon as you begin to feel weak and languid, nervous and depressed, you are in danger. Make your blood pure and your nerves strong at once.
Mr. Thomas H. Carlet, of Des Moines, New South Wales, Australia, sends us this letter, with the photograph was suddenly taken very ill and for three weeks was confined to my bed. I was very weak and nervous. I had been suffering from impure blood for many years. I had tried many remedies, but nothing had helped me. I then saw an advertisement for Ayer's Sarsaparilla and decided to try it. I bought a bottle and took it according to the directions.

After a few days I began to feel better.
After a few weeks I was able to get up and go about my business. I am now strong and healthy. I can truly say that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has saved my life.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

It did me good at once. In all I used fifteen bottles. Without doubt it saved my life, even after sixteen months of suffering.

Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

BREACH OF PROMISE

A VERDICT FOR $2500 DAWNS IN HONOLULU

Supreme Court Justice in Honoring An-drea's Claim—Wife of John Andrew in Broken Marriage Matter

The Supreme Court yesterday rendered a unanimous decision, with Chief Justice Perry, sustaining the verdict of a jury and finding of Judge Hale in the breach of promise suit of Andy (John) Andrew against Andrea (Mrs. John) Andrew, wherein the young woman was awarded $2500 damages.

The court declared that there was plenty of evidence to sustain a verdict for substantial damages, and discussed at length the relations existing between the plaintiff and defendant. As to the motion for a non-suit the decision was negative.

The motion for a non-suit was based on the ground that the evidence showed that the sole consideration for the promise to marry the plaintiff was an immoral one. There was other testimony, however, which was clearly sufficient to sustain a finding by the jury that the defendant's promise to marry the plaintiff was based solely on the plaintiff's promise to marry him. The jury may well have found, further, and such finding would find ample support in the evidence, that the defendant was subsequently accompanied by virtue of the promise of marriage.

The court then reviewed the promise of marriage, made on September 8, 1902, and repeated over and over many times until September, 1903, when the defendant suddenly told the plaintiff that he was going to marry another woman, which he did on October 1, 1903. The court says that the announcement that the defendant had decided to marry another woman was not made with gentleness and tenderness, but with harshness and cruelty and added:

"The injury to plaintiff's feelings and affection, the mortification and distress of mind, the humiliation and physical pain suffered by her in consequence of the seduction and otherwise, the length of the engagement, the degree of plain-tiff's devotion to defendant, the conduct of the parties toward each other, the injury to the plaintiff's prospects in life, and the disappointment of her reasonable expectations of worldly advantage resulting from the intended marriage, were all elements of damage resulting from the breach and proper to be considered by the jury in estimating the amount of the verdict. In my opinion the proof of damage was sufficient to sustain a verdict for a substantial amount."

Andrews, Peter and Andrea appeared for the plaintiff and J. T. De Bolt for defendant.

In Judge Humphrey's court the case of E. O. Hall & Son vs. the Hawaiian Valley and Upland Development Company was heard and resulted in a mistrial. The suit was for goods to the value of $900, delivered to W. H. Hall for an alleged co-partnership, but all the important evidence of mutual responsibility was ruled out, on account of failure to establish the partnership.
Under this ruling the plaintiff, attorney for plaintiff, stated that he would not accept a non-suit. The court stated that withdrawal of a jury would be allowed so that the case might stand over as a mistrial, to allow the defendant to amend or get new evidence.

This case was taken Application has been made to the supreme court by Robertson and Wilder, in behalf of Mrs. Irene H. Holloway, for a writ of error in the matter of the Holloway minors, whom Judge Humphrey ordered delivered to their father every other week in accordance with an order of Gear's, later refusing to allow an appeal.
